

2021 REALTOR® of the Year

Sue Wray, Broker, Brownlee-Wray Realty has been named the 2021 REALTOR® of the Year by the Midwestern Ohio Association of REALTORS®. This award is presented to an active REALTOR® who represents the outstanding attributes of the profession and who has made a real commitment to the real estate industry.

Sue was licensed in 1986 and became a Broker in 2005. She has participated in the Association as a Board of Director, continuing ed classes and activities such as RPAC, affiliate events and the annual community blood drive. She has had a successful career and has been recognized with the Ohio REALTORS President Sales Club award multiple years.

Sue has mentored many agents throughout her career. One of her nominators wrote: "She is hands down the most admirable woman I have ever met. I chose to be on her team after seeing her deep passion for building relationships within the community. In just a short time, she has instilled in me a new found confidence to be a strong, hardworking businesswoman. I truly aspire to be half the woman she is...not just in real estate but in life."

Another nominator said "Sue goes above and beyond for her clients; always working in their best interest. She takes her clients from step 1 in the real estate transaction process to closing the deal." She promotes the value of using a REALTOR by educating her clients how important a REALTORS skills and knowledge are in the home purchase process.

Another nominator wrote: "I like the "family type atmosphere" of the brokerage. Sue is always available to answer questions....no matter what time of day....and will help anyone who needs help. She genuinely cares about her agents and her clients."

Sue became involved with the Midwestern Ohio Board of Directors in 2014 and has served two consecutive terms as a Board member. She has served as Treasurer for the Board since 2018.

As the Midwestern Ohio REALTORS® award winner, Sue will be nominated for the Ohio REALTOR of the Year which will be announced at the 2021 Ohio REALTORS Fall Convention in September.

Congratulations to Sue Wray, 2021 REALTOR® of the Year!
